White House Grounds in Possession of Young America.

THE ANNUAL EGG ROLLING TODAY

Children of All Conditions and Ages Take Part.

The American eagle today temporarily relinquished his exalted place as the emblematic bird of freedom, so far as the nation's capital city was concerned, and the American hen strutted proudly in upon the scene to hold brief but imperial sway. The dignified old dominicker held court in the White House grounds, and there upon the dandelion-decked lawns, and amid the budding shrubbery, and caressed by a soft south breeze which breathed the song of gentle spring, thousands of her subjects gathered to do her loyal homage.

- Early the throng began to assemble and ere noon the vantage places on the gentle eminences were in possession of children. big and little, representing every phase of American life and forming a strikingly characteristic composite picture of American juvenility. The sod and the walks were as dry as bones, and so the youngsters' guardians permitted them to themselves as well as their eggs; and after a winter of restraint they gave themselves up to a joyous revel that was gladdening to all concerned. They came in couples and quartets, in groups and schools, and all brought eggs, and quantities of them. Here would be observed an entire family, including the nurse, the house girl and the cook lady, as well, and there would be including the nurse, the nouse giri and the cook lady, as well, and there would be seen a proud schoolmarm with her little flock, all rolling eggs and snjoying the oc-casion with regular picnic animation. There were lunch baskets, too, as well as egg baskets, and down near the fountain the cedar and spruce trees were utilized for lunching places, and cloths were spread upon the grass and their appetites satisfied wi... the contents of generous hampers.

Fakirs in Evidence. The streets leading to the grounds were flanked, of course, by the members of the candy, and the hokey pokey man plied an active trade with his fearful and wonderful creations in lees and creams.

It was not long before the dandelions were outspotted, so far as yellowing the sward was concerned, by the interior composition of the emblems of the day, which, while pink and purple and green and blue and hued in a thousand tints externally, all bore hearts of mellow yellow, which became exposed by the destruction which rolling brought in its wake. Argus-eyed mothers and watchful nurses, to say nothing of anxious papas, keenly observed their charges, lest taey should proceed to assimilate the emblems after their shells were the emblems after their shells were "Put your aig in your hat an' then we'll git those two boys over-there ter try an' find it an' give 'em the laff."

This struck the big-eyed boy as excellent, and under his hat the egg went. The other two boys were urged to find the egg, and pretended to look everywhere for it. Suddenly one of the rascals raised his hand and brought it down smartly on the big-eyed boy's head.

As the white ran down over his fore-head the tears joined it, and as he went to find his mother to get her to rub the yolk out of his hair the freckled-face juvenile and his confederates yelled in derisive glee: "Les hide eggs."

Thousands on the Grounds.

As the hours were on the crowd increased, until at 2 o'clock, when the Marine Band, under Lleut, Santelmann, arrived there were probably 18,000 persons within the grounds. A great many well-dressed colored people were noticeable, this being the anniversary of Emancipation day as well as Easter Monday.

Probably no one enjoyed the scenes more than Mrs. McKinley, whose love for the little ones is so warm and earnest. She viewed the throngs for some time from a south window of the White House and watched the romning children with spelling. vatched the romping children with smiling interest. Mrs. Hobart and Miss Barbo were with her, and the President joined the party several times and looked out on the glad gathering.

POLICE COURT JUDGE

Candidates Out for a Possible Vacancy on Bench.

Many members of the bar seem confident that Judge Charles F. Scott of the Police ourt will be appointed District Commissioner, to succeed Commissioner John B. Wight, whose term of office expires in a short time Because of this belief candi-dates for the Police Court judgeship are becoming numerous and some of them are at work getting indorsements. A number of names have been mentioned in connection with the judgeship, among them Sam-uel C. Mills, Anson S. Taylor and John H. O'Donnell, who now hold commissions as jusices of the peace. The name of James L. Pugh, who has held the position of assistant attorney for the District a number of years, has also been mentioned. Each of the men named has many admirers and friends, and some active canvassing is already being done. Justice of the Peace Taylor filed a formal application for the position Saturday and, it is stated, other applications will soon follow. The other justices mentioned have been in the field on former occasions.

Mr. Pugh's friends say he has been the prosecuting officer so many years that his familiarity with the laws would make him an exceptionally good judge. Justices Taylor and Mills have been on the Police Court bench a number of times during the summer recesses of the court, and are therefore familiar with the practice. It is believed by many of the persons interested that the President will appoint Judge Scott's successor at the time the latter is appointed Commissioner, in evens of the latter appointment being decided upon. Several candidates for the judgeship other than those mentioned are likely to make their wishes known during the next few days. Pugh, who has held the position of assistant

THE HEALTH HABIT

JUST AS EASY TO FORM AS ANY OTHER. We do not deliberately form our pet habits, but We do not deliberately form our pet habits, but they are unconsciously acquired and grow as we grow, and by the time we learn they are hurting us, we find them too strong to be easily broken. Then, why not form a good habit, a habit which will counteract the many bad ones, in other words, contract the unfashionable habit of being always well.

The best health habit to get into is to have and The best nearth name to get into is to have and keep a vigorous stomach; if you have a healthy digestion you can drink your beloved coffee, smoke your favorite brand of tobacco, with little or no harm; the mischief begins when these things are forced upon the taithful stomach, without any assistance Form the habit of taking after meals some harm-

Form the habit of taking after meals some harmless but efficient digestive which will relieve the Nature furnishes ua with such digestives, and when they are combined in such a pleasant preparation as Suart's Dyspepsia Tablets they give the overworked stomach just the necessary assistance to secure perfect digestion without any of the harmful effects of cathartics and similar drugs.

The habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals is as necessary to the weak stomach as food itself, and, indeed, to get the benefit from food eaten, nothing better and certainly nothing safer can be used.

sons are dead and two are dangerously wounded at the mining town of Windber near here, as the result of a drunken row in a disorderly house there last night. One Italian is charged with the wholesale crime, but it is believed that he is already beyond the reach of the law, as a man answering his description was ground under a train at South Fork this morning. The John Halverson, a Swede,

Ed. P. McCauley, an American. Gust Grievback, a Slav. Samuel Shives, an American. Some of these are victims of a revolve nd some of the deadly stilletto; the two wounded men. Thomas Kipling and "Jerk" Buckwalter, both being wounded with the latter instrument. Fight in a "Speak-Easy."

The row occurred at the home of a French woman known as Mrs. Stuex. Two weeks ago she married an Italian. The place has been known as a "speak-easy," or unlicensed saloon, and has been frequented by both foreigners and Americans employed in the mines of the Berwind-White Coal Co. Yesterday seems to have been a banner day throughout, but no particular demonstration was made until about ticular demonstration was made until about 10:15 o'clock last night, when a man appeared at the door and cried that he had been stabbed, ran a few steps and then fell over dead on the street. He was followed by a second and then a third. The fourth man who was killed died in the house and the two wounded men were found there. There was a dozen or more men in the house when the affray occurred, but none of them can be found, and it is impossible to learn even the name of the murderer or any facts concerning him beyond that he wore a slouch hat, slightly creased. It is believed that he would naturally fice toward Altoona, however, and as South Fork is on the road there, it is generally thought that he was the man who was killed this morning.

Three Women Arrested. Mrs. Stuex and two other women who vere inmates of the house are under arrest, and the place is being guarded by men with Winchesters. Various stories are afloat as to the cause of the row, but the women re fuse to talk. One story is that Mrs. Stuex angered the murderer by giving too much attention to other men, and that the fight was over a game of cards, and a third that it was the result of bad blood over the strike at the Horatio mine. The town is in a state of wild excitement. Hundreds of people stand around the house and the pools of blood on the streets where the men died. Rough treatment will probably be Rough treatment will probably be accorded the murderer if it proves that he is still alive, and if he is caught. The fact that he was able to do so much execution without himself receiving harm is accounted for on the theory that he was:probably the only one of the party armed, and that he was perhaps not so drunk as the others.

Mrs. Jobe Asks for Legal Separation From Her Husband.

Bettle J. Jobe, through Attorney Campbell Carrington, today instituted proceedings for divorce against Ike T. Jobe. Desertion on the part of the latter is alleged. The parties were married in Jonesboro', Tenn., October 6, 1876. The desertion, it is charged, occurred June 1, 1897.

The defendant is said to be the man who was recently arrested in this city by the United States marshal at the request of the authorities of Columbus, Ohio. He repre-sented himself as a captain in the army, it was alleged, and used War Department penalty envelopes for private purposes. Jobe was also accused of false pretenses in After being delivered at Columbus Jobe escaped, but, it is reported, has been recaptured. In the petition for divorce it is set forth that he is now residing in Troy, Ohio. connection with railroad transportation
